The Detective "Putting Up" Case-Examina-

The United States vs. Abner B. Newcomb. - The charges eferred by Chief Detective Young against ex-Deputy arahal Newcomb were brought up for hearing. These charges involve details of a curious and spicy character, as affecting the management of police detective markers. The allegations on the part of the prosecution are that Newcomb conspired with a man named Rockaway to obtain the release of a certain Wim. W. Dow from an indictment of counterfeiting in Maine, in consideration of a money payment of over seven hundred dollars. Fo accomplisa this, it is alleged that they took rooms in Bleecker street, fitted them up with a press, plates and all the machinery for counterfeiting, printed off a few sheets of spurious twenty-five centistangs and then made a settore of the premises they themselves had fitted up, alleging that Dow had given them the information on which they had acted, and keping thus to secure his release.

United "tates District Attorney Courtbey, who consucted the prosecution, caited Wim. W. Dow as his first witness. Thereupon a burty, well dressed man, with a closely cropped head of black hair and a visage suggesting a respectable English tucket-of-leave man, came forward is custody of an officer from New Hampshire, who holds him one a warrant for issuing counterfeit currency in that State.

occasion the back and front plates of a twenty-five cent stamp were brought out of a back room. Newcomb booked at them and said they would do, and that he would make the senzors that night. A press was bought in Fulton street, witness finding the money, and that same day the press, the plates, some paper and ink were placed in a room on the third floor of a house in Bleecker street, which Rockawy had taken for a month. Witness was sent ahead to loosen the serws, so that the door would burst open easily, and that night the "welrure" was made; witness did not know this of his own knowledge, for he was not present when it was done, but next day Newcomb told bim he had made a special report of the seizure to Colonel Young, at Washington, and that his (Dow's) order of release would come in a few days; on these representations witness authorized Mrs. Rockaway to hand over to Newcomb $750, which he (witness) had deposited with her for this express purpose; he had never gos any release from the indictment.

The witness gave his testimony with considerable reserve. At the close of his examination in choir the curt adjourned till to day, at three o'clock. The desendant, Newcomb, made an effort to arrest the winness on a State warrant issued against bim for perfury, in stating under out that his name was 500tt, and that he owned the house in Mercer street, now sworn to as Rockaway's.

The District Attorney protested that no State warrant could remove a witness from a United States court where he was under tuvestigation.

Mr. Sedgwick concurred that the arrest of Dow was quite unnecessary, as he was in custody of an officer from New Hampshire now.

The desendant, Newcomb, questioned whether the effect had any authority to hold the man.

The District Attorney and he had seen the officer's authority, and it was ample.

The Commission remarked if there was going to be any more quartelling he would commit the man himself, for he wanted to hears a hold the man.

Eventually Dow, who regarded the quarrel over his suckedy with a p

SUPREME COURT—CIRCUIT—PART 2.

The Explosion of the Steambont Arrow—Action for Damages.

Before Judge Smith.

William E. Ericken, Administrator of Mary E.

Bricken, deceased, vs. David D. Smith et. al.—Plaintiff sees under letters of administration for the recovery of $5,000 damages, the full amount allowed by statue, for the killing of the deceased, Mary E. Erickson, on the 5th day of August, 1865. The complaint sets forth that on that day the defendants were the owners of the steamboat Arrow, plying between this city and Haverstraw, and that the deceased was a passenger on the vessel on suffering the state of the boilers, through the negligence of the defendants or their servants, exploded, frightfolly scalding the deceased, and blowing her overboard, so that the was drowed.

The answer of the defendantes admit the ownership of the vessel, but says that they have no knowledge whether the decedent was a passenger on board of the vessel at the time; specifically denies the allegation of the bad condition of the vessel or her boilers, and interposes a general denial of every other allegation of the complaint. The evidence taken before the Coroner's jury subsequent, and is relation to the occurrence, was submitted to the court. In rendering that verdict the jury cerbsored the owners of the boat and the government inspector of steam boilers for neglect and carelessness.

One of the witnesses called for the plaintiff, an enterpower the owners of the boat and the government to the court.

This testimony was given in rebuttal of the theory of the defence that deceased jumped overboard through terror and was drowned. The case is not yet concluded. For the plaintiff, Larned; and Warren for the de-plied upon a writ of babeas corpus for the recovery of her child Walter, three years of age, which is in the charge of her father-in-law, Benjamin Sherman, alleging that the child was improperly cared for and neglected, and that the respondent was not morally competent to take proper care of and train the child. The testimony elicited on former examinations has been already published in the Heralia. The "Sidney" mentioned in the testimony is the husband of the petitioner and the son of the respondent. A divorce suit is at present pending between Sidney and Mrs. F. E. Sherman.

Benjamin Sherman testified as foilows:—Since my examination I have been to the house where my son resided at the time I took up the child when it criedt and took it to bed with me; I am not certain whether it was in Thirty-third street or Thirty-second street; my present wife is sister to Sidney's mother.

Edward F. Hobbs, sworn for the respondent, said:—I am partner of the respondent in business in West Washington market; I know the relator, Mrs. Sherman; I saw her at the market stand about the lat of May last; she stayed there about an hour; when Mrs. Sherman came in she occupied the low camp stool; Mr. Sherman is in a chair; they talked about the child; I went out of the office where they were into the stand; I was in the stand the whole time; anywhere in the stand I could hear a conversation if carried on in the office; I did not hear a conversation if carried on in the office; I did not hear a conversation make a proposition to keep Mrs. Sherman if did not hear him say anything it regard to her lega Q. Did you see Mr. Sherman that day? Objected to. Q. Did you see Mr. Sherman that day? Objected to. When Mrs. Sherman left she bade him "good bye," and asked him to call and see her as soon as he could.

Nothing material was elected from the cross-examination of this witness, and the further hearing was advoured until the morning. For the petitione, Thomas Dunphy; for the respondent, William Shaw.

ZITY INTELLIGENCE.

MUSIC OR THE PARK LAKE.-The Park Commissioners announce that if the weather be fine there will be music on the Lake at the Park to-day, commencing at 3 o'clock P. M.

city during the week ending Saturday the 20th inst.

THE ALLEGED WIFE MURDER IN MULBERRY STREET day held an inquest at the Sixth precinct station house over the remains of Rose ann Hogan, iate of No. 82 Mulberry street, whose death it was supposed had been hastened by violence inflicted at the bands of John Hogan, her busband, as published in yesterday's Herald. The testimony introduced went to show that both she and her husband were addicted to the free use of intoxicating liquors, and had been in the habt of quarrelling, on which occasions he would beat and abuse her. Wooster Heach, Jr., M. D., made a post mortem examination of the budy of the deceased, and found several cuis and contusions about the head and body, but none of a fatal character. The internal organs showed that deceased had be u exceedingly intemperate, and she had suffered from disease of the heart, hestened by intemperance, and the jury accordingly rendered a verdict to that effect. Hogan was thereupon discharged from custody. Previous to leaving the station house, Hogan solemniy promised coroner Wildey that he would sign the pledge and never again touch strong drink. Deceased was twenty-nine years of age and a native of New York.

STEAMBOAT INSPECTIONS AND LICENSES.—The Board of

includes all waters from Lake Champjain to the Delaware river, have been in session in this city. The following report of their labors has been made:—Certificates of inspection during the year ending October 1, 1867, were granted to 590 steamers, measuring 289,939 toos. Several boilers were found stightly detective, but, repairs having subsequently been made, certificates were granted. One was condemned. 270 engineers and assistants have received licenses, and 677 have had licenses renewed. Of these but one has had his license revoked. Iwo deaths were caused by accidental explosions or escape of steam. Both persons were deck hands. Fourteen lives were lost by fire, among them two passengers, and one by collision. The number of pilots licensed has been 163. Those whose licenses have been renewed number 311.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO A LITTLE GIRL.—Annie G. Hastie, a little girl, nearly ten years of age, died at No. 37 Crosby street from the effects of injuries received two or three days since by failing from the fifth story of the above named building, where she was at play, to the ground. Coroner Wildey held an inquest on the body, and the jury rendered a verdict of accidental death.

FATAL HATCHWAY ACCIDENT, -Yesterday forencon as some boys were playing with the hoisting rope at No. 10 some boys were playing with the hoisting rope at No. 10 Reade street, one of their number, named Michael McGowan, while being hoisted up, got frightened, and letting go his hold was precipitated to the cround floor, faling a distance of about thirty feet. Officer Dwyer, of the Twenty-sixth precinct, had the unfortunate lad conveyed to the New York Hospital, but he died shortly after being admitted from his injuries, having fractured the skull and being otherwise seriously injured internative. The Coroner has been notified and will possibly hold an inquest some time during to-day.

Sudden Daarit.—A man named George Golden, residuant of the coroner shows 184 Chambers street, was taken suddenly ill yesterday and died in a few moments. The body was conveyed to his residence, and the Coroner notified to hold an inquest.

THE BOARD OF EXCESS.—The Board of Excise held their regular weekly meeting yesterday afternoon, one of the Commissioners in the chair. Only six cases were tried and three licenses revoked. The following are the names of the siaughtered ones:—Kaspar Schweinfest, No. 113 Smith street, Brooklyn; John Scherff, No. 4 Great Jones street, New York. Twenty other cases were adjourned to the next meeting day of the Board.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

Bold Attempt at Burglant—$250,000 Involves.—On Monday night a woman, residing at No. 80 Pike slip, accidentally observed from her window a party of men endoavoring to force an entrance from the rear into the storage warehouse of J. H. Hobby & Sons, Nos. 238 and 239 South street. Believing them to be robbers she unhesitatingly raised an alarm, and by this means succeeded in attracting the attention of roundsman Whitcomb and patrolmen Lucas, Tucker. McNally, Hamilton, Jarboe and Shalvey. These immedately surrounded the premises, and, on searching them, found secreted in the stores adjoining those of Snyder & Sons, 236 and 237 South street, four men, who gave their names as Joseph Dunbar, thirty-six years of age, a native of St. Louis and a resident of 85 Grand street; George Whittington, twenty years old, a native of Illinois and a resident of Henry street; James Higgins, twenty-two years old, a native of New York and a resident of Twenty-third street, and William Mills, twenty three years of age, a native of New York and a resident of Second favenue. They had succeeded, it is alleved, in entering the warehouse of Snyder & Sons by forcing the scuttle, having previously passed over the roof from the Hobby storehouse. This morning Mr. Anthony & Sndyer, of 237 South sireet, appeared before Justice Shandley, of the Third District Police Court, and made deposition as follows, upon which the meu, in default of $3,000 bail, each, were committed to answer at the General Sessions:—That the said premises were burglariously entered by forcing a window of the building 239 South street, thonce making way to the roof of and breaking open the scettle of deponent's premises, 238 and 237, on the night of the 21st of October, 1807, and thence attempting to take and feloniously carry away merchandies of the value of $200,000, the property of divers merchants, but in care and charge of deponent. The deponent urrither alleges that the burglary was committed and the property of lives merchants, but in care and charge of deponent. The BOLD ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY-$250,000 INVOLVED .- OU ment with the party owning it for its hire for one month, paying the rent in advance. On the 10th of September Lucy Davis called at the store of Calwin A. Minger, 626 Broadway, and as stated by George L. Elisard, hired a planoforte from him of the value of $200, which she caused to be removed to her residence at 465 Sixth avenue (she had previously hired one from Jeremiah M. Petton, of 841 Broadway, of the value of $400, and which shortly after its delivery she caused to be conveyed to some place as yet unknown to the deponent. She repeated her programme of operations at nearly every puntofarte dealer's warehouse depot in the city, until the house in Sixth avenue became the centre of an extraordinary business busite—long, square and upright instruments going in and coming out of the place during the day in great numbers; but the most curious part of the affair is this:—the planos which went out of the house can nowhere no found. Eight dealers in planoforties are prepared to testify to their verdancy while dealing with Miss Davis; but the lady positively declines recognizing either of them, and limits that she known nothing whatever of their planos. She is held for trial at the Georga Sessions by Justice Shandler, of the Third District Police Court. Miss Davis, alias Murray, judging, from external appearances, se ms to be exceedingly unconcerned about the whole matter—looking on it as an excellent joke.

him with stealing a letter book. French and Spanish books, valuable papers and other articles, it is alleged, were in the safe in the store 76 Frince street, and complainant was asked by the prisoner if he would get him some apples. He compiled with the request, leaving the prisoner alone in the store while he was absent. After he returned and the prisoner left it was discovered the property in question was some. Upon these facts the charge was based. The accured picaded not guits. Justice Ledwith held him to bail to answer the charge.

THE FORT GAYSEVOORT PROPERTY.

perty has a somewhat curious history. In 1852 it was sold by the Corporation to Mr. Joseph B. Varnum for the sum of $162,000. Of that amount Mr. Varnum paid down $40,000 and gave a mortgage for the balance. It the mortgage, and that the city authorities forget to demand any. The same thing, it is alleged, occurred with the taxes and as essements. In the month of November of 1862 proceedings were commenced in the Common Council which resulted in giving the property back to the city in January, 1863, for the sum of $533,437 50, or an advance of $493.457 50 on the price originally received for it by the city authorities from Mr. Varnum. From that time the property has been lying idle. It is bounded on the north by Twelfth street, on the east by Wettstreet, on the south by Gansevoort street, and on the west by Thirteenth avenue and the North river. It is nearly all made land, but admirably adapted for business purposes, having a fine water front.

The land has lately beed divided into ninety-six lots, of which twenty-six have a water front. The minimum price for the corner lots has been fixed by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund at $12,000, and that of the others at $9,000.

The sale of this property commenced yesterday, at the Exchange salestroom, No. 111 Broadway. The attendance of buyers was not very large, and the bidding was characterized by extreme caution.

The first lots put up were those on Thirteenth avenue, having a water front, but, as the minimum price was not bid, the lots were withdrawn until next Thursday, when they will again be offered for sale.

The remaining lots, seventy in number, were then not up and sold for prices ranging from $3.600 to $11,600, the beaviest purchasers being Mr. Bradish Johnson and Messrs. Coe & Co.

The whole amount realized from yesterday's sale was $344,500. mand any. The same thing, it is alleged, occurred with Attorneys for the National Park Bank.

Almost simultaneously General Barlow (Secretary of State), counsel for the bank, had a personal interview with the District Attorney, in which the latter was given to understand that the probabilities were the bank would abate the nuisance. The District Attorney therefore gave time until the third Monday of the term to file the proper notice of abatement, or (if the bank finally determined to contest) the proper plea to reise the novel question whether a municipal legislature could authorize a nuisance. Should the case be tried faithough it is almost creatin that the bank will remove the obstructions so soon as the architects can remodel plans, i.e.,) the people will have the benefit of the attendance on the bench of either Recorder Hackett or Judge Ingraham, both of whom are entirely familiar with municipal law and the dectrines governing the indictment.

The only son of Mr. Jacob R. Crossman, of Woodbridge, N. J., was fatally injured on the 18th inst. by accidentally failing under a car carrying clay from the clay mines to the brick manufactory of his father. The car whoch passed over the upper third of the thigh, and savered it from the body with the exception of a small portion of the tissue on the inside of the thigh. On being reached he was conscious, but bore his injuries with the greatest fortitude. When it was suggested to take him to his father's residence he objected, saying that it would kill his mother to see him in such a state. The limb was amputated, but the poor sufferer survived the operation only a short time.
